CCCC Cover Connection

January 2014

It's 2014. What will you collect this year?

One of the fun aspects of collecting covers and stamps is anticipating new additions. Most collectors have special items they desire to receive. You can help them and they can help you.

What do you want to receive from CCCC in 2014? Can you help fellow members both by telling them your desires and helping them by sending what they desire?

CCCC is unique in that we as members can help one another collect exactly what we want. Only you can insure that other members' collections grow—and only they can build your collection.

We are among the most international of hobby clubs. With members on six continents (we lack only a member in Antarctica) we are a band separated by distance and culture but united in our love of stamps and covers. Enjoy being members of a worldwide fellowship. So make big plans for 2014.

Dream of receiving that one special cover you have always hoped for.

Most of all, enjoy collecting.
