Next Year

As we approach the New Year it is time to think about how we can increase our happiness in our hobby. We are collectors because we enjoy collecting, so how can we have more fun?

For cover collectors more fun means receiving more and better covers. That happens only when we do it for one another. We live all over the world but we all strengthen our network.

We all want excellent covers. I see from comments which I receive that what is excellent for one CCCC member may not be exactly what another member desires. But I also see that members strongly desire to send what is wanted.

The best way to receive what you want is to be explicit about your desires. Tell our OMs what countries and themes are your favorites. Do you want the newest issues or do you want philatelic classics? Use the form 10s which they send you or let me know and I will pass the word.

I think 2015 will be a banner year for CCCC. Our webmaster, Tom Fortunado, is doing a masterful job of making member lists available to OMs so they can generate more circuits. We expect to have an online system for reporting excellent covers available soon.
