Starting Early

One of the interesting things I have learned as your Managing Director is that often CCCC is a family tradition. We have members whose families have been active in Cover Collectors Circuit Club for at least two generations.

Two members have forward to me circuits originated by their mother or father over sixty years ago. I am aware of at least one father-son pair who both are active in CCCC.

I think that beyond family stories we can see that we need to get young persons involved in Cover Collectors and in philatelia in general.

One member in India has worked with hundred of youth stamp clubs. That sort of outreach is crucial to the future of our hobby. What can you do to introduce more youth to the joy of collecting?

CCCC welcomes younger members. Cover exchanges such as CCCC are an excellent way for young people to explore the world for the cost of a few stamps. Invite them to join us.
