Checking Our Covers

Good news! We are restarting our CCCC checker work. This gives every CCCC member a way to report about the covers which they receive and to honor excellent covers.

Nuno Silva has volunteered to again take on the task of managing our reports. We owe him a vote of thanks for taking on this leadership role.

To participate you only need to list the covers which you receive on a simple form and submit it to Nuno Silva. A master copy the reporting form for you to copy is attached to this newsletter for members who receive this newsletter electronically. If you do not have email a copy is available from your Managing Director.

Because we all want to send and receive excellent covers, the checker system helps by identifying members who send excellent covers and those who need guidance to step up their game. We look forward to honoring those who excel.
