Listing What We Want

Collecting is about receiving what we desire. To get the covers which you desire you need to tell our Originating Members your wishes.

That, of course, is a reason for you to become an Originating Member. Then you have full control over which covers come to you.

My observation is that Originating Members show three ways of setting up circuits.

#1 Some members have a special set of friends who populate their circuits. Probably they need to expand their lists.

#2 Many members focus on topical interests such as Butterflies or Railroads. That's difficult if your postal authority never features those on stamps.

#3 Most members (including myself) largely match by countries desired. Usually this means that you receive your requests and so does the next member.

To get what you want, let others know what you want.
