Cover Collectors as Community

As your Managing Director I am very aware of how both diverse and yet unified we are as a group. We come from over 100 nations on six continents. We undoubtedly span every variety of age, gender, race, politics or religion. Yet we are united in our fascination with postal covers and other aspects of our philatelic hobby.

There are no limits on who may be part of our community. Geography, age, health, or any other of the usual barriers do not matter. I have been receiving from members some of the final completed circuits sent by our colleague Jan Jorgensen. When we were at the NYC stamp show, Jan who had often boasted of his walking adventures was in a wheelchair; but as always he was enthusiastic about covers. Now as we circulate his final circuits we see that nothing ever deters a Cover Collector.

So enjoy your covers. Also enjoy that you are part of a unique community around the world.
