One, Two, Three Stamps

Many postal authorities now issue a single high value stamp for overseas mail. The USPS has just issued a new international rate stamp--Global: Green Succulent which pays the current US$ 1.15 worldwide rate and as a "forever" stamp will also be valid when the rate is raised.

While convenient for postal authorities, these stamps are a problem for collectors. We like covers with several attractive stamps. A CCCC cover should have at least three stamps or be otherwise special to be called "excellent." So we need to find different stamps wherever possible.

We all like it when stamps match our topical interests. Certainly I smile when I see a train on a stamp. Remember that not all countries issue stamps which match your topical interest. Never down rate a cover only because it does not match your topical interests.
