Collecting Choices

What do you want to collect? Unless you have an unlimited budget and unlimited storage you cannot collect everything. We all make choices.

From your comments I see that CCCC includes collectors with many different interests. Is your quest for stamps or for covers? Some members basically want the newest stamps. Others study postal history. Some only want certain countries. Some like to see a bit of everything.

Members who say "covers only" have many specialties. Some want FDCs. Some want covers on specific themes. Some want covers which are creative works of art. Some collect postmarks or other mailing marks.

When we know the next circuit members interests we try to fulfill their desires. Of course your country may not issue stamps on their preferred theme. So we cannot expect that every cover which we receive will exactly match our "wish list."

Be sure to rate the quality of covers when you receive a circuit. That helps Originating Members in getting you what you want.
