CCCC Gathering
 Malaysia 2009

When OMs mail a Form 10 to our members, some of them require 25 used stamps for filling the Form 10. Other OMs do not require these stamps and are happy with a nice cover.

You are not obligated to return any Form 10 and you may choose to mail only to those OMs who do not have a stamp requirement. It is completely up to you how many Forms 10 you return and in a way, it will reflect in the quantity of letters you may receive. I personally discourage OMs asking for these stamps, but in the end it is up to the individual OM how they decide on this issue.

CCCC member Srimi Thevarayan has been organizing the next CCCC gathering which will tentatively take place in Klang, Selangor Malaysia July 11-13, 2009.

Many international fast food chains such as McDonalds, KFC, Pitzta Hut, Pitzta Ria, A&W, and Subway are scattered all over the city. There are also excellent restaurants that serve Chinese, Malay and Indian food.

Srimi chose the location based on affordable lodging and the benefit of efficient and comfortable public transportation without the traffic problems of a larger city. Public transportation consists of both trains and buses that generally arrive in 10 and 20 minute intervals. Srimi is still investigating hotels and negotiating rates. The hotels are 2 and 3 star hotels. There will be a 4 star hotel opening soon. Those who desire 5 star hotel accommodations could opt to stay in Subang Jaya 15km, Petaling Jaya 20km or Kuala Lumpur 35km.

So far a dinner is planned for members on the first day of the gathering. The itinerary also includes a visit to Kuala Lumpur to see sites such as the Petronas Twin Towers, Batu Caves, Selangor Pewter, Muzium Negara, and Batik Factory. A visit to the historical city of Melaka is also planned.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions please be sure to contact Srimi.

As for food, there are some restaurants that serve fairly good European style meals.
