Meet a member By Jeff Hayward

When the idea of this newsletter was conceived it was with the hope that it could be used to connect members with one another. This newsletter is an opportunity for members to learn more about each other and to find new friends.

While there have been opportunities for CCCC members to meet at stamp shows and CCCC gatherings, the majority of members only contact with one another is through the covers they send. All we really know about each other comes from the covers we send, our collecting interests, and where we are from.

Why not take a moment to introduce yourself to members of the CCCC and send me a short note along with the type of covers you send to other members? I will include a letter in the newsletter so that other members can get to know you.

Are there local stamp clubs, shows, or fairs you plan on attending? We can include the show information here and maybe CCCC members could plan to meet each other.

The CCCC circuits also have plenty of free space to send messages to others on the circuit. Take a moment and tell others about your collecting interests and about yourself if you like.

Doing any of the above may result not only in a nice cover but maybe a new philatelic friend!

Please take a few minutes and write a quick note to me today. My address is on the back of the newsletter.
