Meet A Member Sri Thevarayan

I am Malaysian of Indian origin age 72 and retired from Commercial Bank's service since 1994. I live in a small home with my good wife Indra. We have three children and five grandchildren that all live close by.

I have been collecting stamps since 1949. In 1960 my late father gave me his 40 year collection of British Commonwealth stamps that includes Malaya Kedah. I have added about 10% to the collection as a tribute to my father and home state Kedah and have created a traditional class one frame exhibit. At Hong Kong 2009 and Korea 2009 FIAP Exhibitions the exhibit was awarded 80 and 79 marks respectively. I will exhibit five frames at Johannesburg FIAP October 27-31 and hopefully at New Delhi FIP February 12-18, 2011. Indra and I are planning to attend the New Delhi Show and would love to meet other CCCC members there.

My collecting interests are: Malaya/Malaysia-Kedah-M/U/Postal Stationary/Covers, Japanese Occupation, UPU, WRY, Gandhi, Postage Dues-M/U/Postal Stationary/Covers, postmarks, slogan cancellations, WW, British Commonwealth issue up to 1960 used.

This hobby keeps me going. It has given me great pleasure and it still does. I have many penfriends around the world and have been writing to some of them for many years now.

Best wishes to all CCCC members and their families.
